

FRIEDERIKE HARTZ

CURRICULUM VITAE

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- CCLAD Project, UCL London | Research Assistant 06/2019 – Present
- Contributing to the H2020 ERC project CCLAD (Politics of Climate Change Loss and Damage)
  - Conducting thematic research, literature reviews and assisting in field work preparation
- UNFCCC, Bonn | Intern Loss & Damage Workstream 06 – 09/2018
- Prepared background paper on coastal adaptation practices
  - Reviewed National Adaptation Plans, expert databases and updated information materials
  - Assisted in preparation of 8th meeting of the Executive Committee of the WIM
- Deutscher Bundestag, MP Frank Junge | Student Assistant 05/2014 – 01/2020
- Drafting responses to citizen requests and speeches
  - Preparation of newsletters and homepage posts
  - Providing policy research and frequent updates on German legislation to MP
- Goethe-Institut Chicago | Administrative and Research Intern 01 – 04/2017
- Supported administration and cultural department of Goethe-Institut Chicago
  - Developed and implemented sustainability strategy for the institute
- Lawyer's Office, Mr. Christian Wöhlke, Schwerin | Legal Intern 03 – 04/2016
- Investigated refugee law cases and participated in legal advice services
- European Parliament, MEP Iris Hoffmann | Intern 02 – 03/2016
- Drafted replies for citizen inquiries, inter alia concerning environmental zoning plans

EDUCATION

- The University of Cambridge 10/2020 – Present
- PhD in Geography | First Year PhD Student
- Research focus: Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change | Loss & Damage
- The University of Edinburgh 09/2019 – 08/2020
- MSc Environmental Sustainability (Distinction)
- Academic focus: Ecosystems | Environmental Impact Assessment | Policy Planning and Participation
  - Master thesis (Distinction): "Representation of Science and Consensus-Building on the Adverse Impacts of Climate Change: The IPCC and Loss & Damage from Climate Change"
- Sciences Po Paris / The London School of Economics 09/2017 – 09/2019
- Dual Degree Programme in International Affairs
- First year (Sciences Po Paris): MA in International Security (Cum Laude)
  - Second year (LSE): MSc International Relations (Distinction)
  - Academic focus: Climate Change Diplomacy | Environmental Governance | Climate Security
  - Master thesis (Distinction): "Securitization and Climate Change at the Global Level: Successes, Failures and Fault Lines"
- École des Hautes Études Commerciales (HEC), Paris 09 – 12/2016
- ERASMUS-Semester (GPA: 4.00)
- Academic focus: Strategy | Ethics and Sustainability | Leading Organizations
- Freie Universität Berlin, Berlin 10/2014 – 06/2017
- BA Political Science with Honours (Distinction)
- Academic focus: International Relations | Environmental Policy | Human Rights
  - Bachelor thesis on international human rights treaties (UNCRC) and enforcement mechanisms

RELEVANT INVOLVEMENT & VOLUNTEER ENGAGEMENT

- Action for Climate Empowerment Youth Forum (YOUNGO) 04/2018
- ACE Youth Conference Delegate at UNFCCC in Bonn
- Organization Team of "Youth & Leaders Summit", Sciences Po 01 – 02/2018
- Personal assistant to Mr. William J. Burns, former US Deputy Secretary of State
- Sciences Po Model United Nations Association 09/2017 – 09/2018
- Delegation of 2017-18, National MUN Conference in New York, UNEA delegate
- Awarded outstanding position paper prize and best delegation award (Sciences Po delegation)

LANGUAGES

- German (Native)
- English (C2: IELTS 8.5)
- French (B2: DELF)
- Spanish (A2)

TECHNICAL SKILLS

- Microsoft Office (incl. Excel, PowerPoint, Publisher)
- Data Visualisation and Social Media (Twitter, etc.)
- Databases (STATA, SPSS)

SCHOLARSHIPS

- OOC AHRC DTP + Pembroke (2020 - 2023)
- Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung e.V. (2014-2019)
- DAAD Scholarship (2017)
- e.fellows (2013)

CONTACT

✉ fri.hartz@gmail.com

in linkedin.com/in/fhartz